It seems like a day
A day that I call smooth
When you came into my heart I knew
The love was overflowing
And I say
- La la la la la! - la la, la la la, la
The day was so long and the night was still
And you kept coming over
To my hill
I would weep for the day
Without you, all the way
You wanted to be free
And doubt would overflow
Just come running to me
'Cause you knew I'd take you home
Then you came into my heart
We knew for a start
Each word like a book
With your spirit flowing ...over me
Don't bother to close your heart
Let's drink honey in the park

Swap hats and go for free

To our secret garden
