With your piercing blue eyes, and your long dark hair, darling you look so great tonight
I just wish you would be mine.

Every night I hope and pray, that some how you would wonder back by my side

But until then ill just sit up and cry.

(Bridge)

When I say I love you girl, its not some word I throw around.

And when you say you love me to, I know its real, no need to frown

But say it once for me, once, just soft and slow.

(Chorus)

So I can let you know, Baby I love you, your the only one that can me me feel so

La la loved inside the dark and lonely world

Your love shall guide me through my ignorance, whats
the difference

Your loves what makes me see....and thats why I call you love.

Now im getting sick of writing these songs, but if its for you ill do it all day long

But somehow I just keep on crying

Your the stars the moon the ocean sun, your every ounce of breath that left in me when this song is done

How many times should I tell you

Repeat Bridge and Chorus.

Iv told you one to many times that I love you

Cuz your my angel girl, no one goes above you

Words could never explain I could only show you

Ill say it once more, Girl I love you

Baby I love you, your the only one that can me me feel so

La la loved inside the dark and lonely world

Your love shall guide me through my ignorance, whats

the difference

Your loves what makes me see....and thats why I call you love. Love Love Love love, Thats why I call you love.
