(words & music by Gene MacLellan)
Beneath this snowy mantle cold and clean The unborn grass lies waiting for its coat to turn to green
The snowbird sings a song he always sings And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom again in spring
When I was young my heart was young then too Anything that it would tell me, that's the thing that I would do But now I feel such emptiness within For the thing that I want most in life
Is the thing I can't win Spread your tiny wings and fly away
And take the snow back with you Where it came from on that day
The one I love forever is untrue
And if I could you know that I would fly away with you The breeze along the river seems to say That she'll only break my heart again should I decide to stay So little snowbird take me with you when you go To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flow
