I didn't really know, if you would take a chance on me...Knowing you've been hurt sometimes before...
But darlin', now you have..and you're finally bound to see..that love won't hurt you anymore..
I'm a man...who only wants to treat you right...
And give you all that you deserve...
You and I, have been known to make mistakes...
And yes, we've struggled through some pain...
But now it's time..and darlin' love is what it takes...
To bring the sunshine through the rain...
Oh, we my cry..but we will never fall apart...
As long as we keep holding on....

Chorus:

So take my hand..and walk with me through life...
Be my "one and only", tender loving wife...
Let me know..the dreams within' your heart..
Promise me forever, and I swear I'll do my part..
In loving you....

Oh, there'll be times when we may stumble...
But the only tears we'll cry..
Are the ons to help us understand..
This love we have inside...

Chorus:

So take my hand..and walk with me through life...
Be my "one and only", tender loving wife...
Let me know..the dreams within' your heart..
Promise me forever, and I swear I'll do my part..
In loving you....

In loving you...
In loving you...
