Verse One:

Baby I know, what your hungry hearts been cravin'..
I know, cause I can see it in your eyes...
I know those games most guys are playin'...
And I know, that hurtin' you ain't right...

If you were to take a chance..
and grant your heart to me...
I would lift you up, and you would see...

Chorus:

There's more to love, then tears and pain...
It's not about breakin' hearts in vain..
It's not about cold, deceptfull lies..
Loves about feelin' so good inside....

Verse Two:

Baby I know..you're afraid
'cause you've been stepped on..
I know, that it's hard to trust again...
I know, that you fear the hurt of deception..
And I know..what you need is a real good friend...

If you were to take a chance..
and grant your heart to me...
I would lift you up, and you would see...

Chorus:

There's more to love, then tears and pain...
It's not about breakin' hearts in vain..
It's not about cold, deceptfull lies..
Loves about feelin' so good inside....
