DONÂ'T SPOIL THE SILENCE

(Music & Words by Elio Pace) Copyright Control

I saw a light on and I watched from across the street And through the window I learned about a secret that you keep
Right there I found out and it made my blood run cold
An explanation, who it is and where you go

The voices in my head were screaming out to me
My heart was saying walk away
It's easier for me to never hear the truth
It's better that you save it for a rainy day

Don't spoil the silence baby Don't tell me where you've been Don't spoil the silence
I'm asking you, begging you baby, please don't

I should've called you, let you know I was on my way
I should've listened to all the things your doubters had to say
What good is hindsight when you're in as deep as me?

'Cause suddenly you took me from a fairy tale
Into a world I've never known
I'm working on a way to find some dignity
But I don't wanna sacrifice a happy home

repeat chorus

And while you're sleeping, breathing so peacefully
I'm seeing murder inside my mind
It's like a fever, a fever that's killing me
Up on the ceiling your demons are laughing at me
And singing songs to your alibis
It's getting louder and louder they're killing me
