STILL WANT YOU

(Music & Words by Elio Pace) Copyright Control

There's always someone
Hanging 'round your heart
You tell me he's the one for you
And in weeks you've grown apart
My love would last more than a week or two
Though you don't want me
I still want you

You cried that night you told me on the phone
That you wanted out
It seemed like I remained as hard as stone
But I was lying, I was crying too
The tears will haunt me
I still want you

All my life I have found I've been messing around
With love affairs that can't compare with you
By mistakes I have made I can finally say
I love you even more You're everything I live for solo

repeat bridge

I see a certain something in your eyes
And I'll never know the truth
Until you tear down your disguise
So if you ever find it to be true
That you still want me
I still want you

If you still want me
I still want you
If you still want me
I still want you
I still want you
