The Anti-Destiny Theory

These blue skies. And bloody lullaby's.
A heart thats, long been broken.
Wishful thinkers. Hopefull dreamers.
Suicide and Second Chances.
Your brown eyes. My sleepless nights.
Awake wondering where you are.
Forget the past. Live in whats real.

This destiny it stole from me, everything I had to live
for.
Don't look back. Forget the past. This is nothing but another rainy day.

You said that, were inlove.
And I know it will stay like this.
The nights gone. This wasted breath.
Trying to tell you how I feel.
My hearts' poured into these words...
That are spilled upon this bloodstained paper
As I try to explain my love for you.

This destiny it stole from me, everything I had to live
for.
Don't look back. Forget the past. This is nothing but
another rainy day.

But you'll never know. But you'll never know.
But what you'll never know.. is how I feel.

This destiny it stole from me, everything I had to live
for.
Don't look back. Forget the past. This is nothing but another rainy day.
