All the red valleys and the sweet lilies
They have seen it all before
They are here each night
To observe the skies
And the cities and the trees
And you and me

From the mountaintops to the liquid drops
They named every place before
(How can the sun burn jewels down?)
Endless symphonies counting memories
Sleeping cities sleeping trees
In you in me

Please breath a heart in me
Please beat heart in me
I am like a rose in you
IÂ´m like a rose in you

Please breath a heart in me
And please beat heart in me
I am like a rose in you
IÂ´m like a rose in you

Always remember
IÂ´m back till december
To break the ice
To melt the pieces
Always remember
IÂ´ll be back till december
And break the ice
And make the pieces fit

Please breath a heart in me
And please hug me and
Please the heart in me...

Always remember
IÂ´m back till december
To break the ice
To melt the pieces

Always remember
Iâll be back till december
And break the ice

... pieces wont fit
I will make them fit
Please breath a heart in me
And please hug me and
Please the heart in me...
