I am in a predicament
Trying to be a gentleman
She wants me back again
Oh, I've tried so hard
To be as faithful
But I wasn't able
Now it's grown painful
Oh, oh

All the grass seems green on the outside
I don't want to see what I had to leave behind
Don't make me choose to be here without you.

There's no rules for this
Once you fall in a kiss
You find that your love
Can be with more than one
I'm caught in between (caught in between)
The fool can be me
I gotta just one,
But with two it's more fun.
Why miss menage a trois, yeah yeah yeah [x5]

Rushing through
Let all the truth out
My dreams will be shut down
Hammering to the showdown.
Trouble's all around
Will I feel the shelter
To try to find better

All the grass seems green on the inside
I don't want to see what I had to leave behind
Don't make me choose to be here without you.

There's no rules for this
Once you fall in a kiss
You find that your love
Can be with more than one
I'm caught in between (caught in between)

The fool can be me
I gotta just one,
But with two it's more fun.
Why miss menage a trois, yeah yeah yeah [x9]

Oh now I had me an epiphany
And I know I can choose
Who to have here next to me
It's a three way race to my destiny
And I'm just prayin' deep down
My heart will speak to me
Until then I'm just gonna give up.

There's no rules for this
Once you fall in a kiss
You find that your love
Can be with more than one
I'm caught in between (caught in between)
The fool can be me
I gotta just one,
But with two it's more fun.
Why miss menage a trois, yeah yeah yeah [x9]
