And there was a place that e once met,
It was by the sunset.
And it was a day I won't forget,
Wholly like the Sunday!

Bridge:

They still see the soul,
The love that now is gone
And they feel close more
To remind the world
Of a boy and girl, yeah!
With the strength to feel the lovers henge
The man you met to our perfect love,
The lovers henge
Is the rope that the love was made before!

Chorus:

A thousand years, don't never know
The way we love and a move a stone
A thousand years, don't never know
The way we love and never know
With the strength to build the lovers henge
The man you met to our perfect love,
The lovers henge
Is the rope that the love was made before!

There was a story that once was said
It could block the sunset
To last than a day to put it there
But it last forever!

Bridge:

They still see the soul,
The love that now is gone
And they feel close more
To remind the world
Of a boy and girl, yeah!
With the strength to feel the lovers henge
The man you met to our perfect love,
The lovers henge
Is the rope that the love was made before!

Chorus:

A thousand years, don't never know
The way we love and a move a stone
A thousand years, don't never know
The way we love and never know
With the strength to build the lovers henge
The man you met to our perfect love,
The lovers henge
Is the rope that the love was made before
