Spreading out across the wind
Throw me out another window
Spreading out across the wind
Throw me out another window
You spread it out
Meanwhile,
I fill in the blank
Always riding me
Only half empty tank
Could you pass the blame please
Have you had any
When it looks bad
I feel you come near me
You by far are so missed
So mystic of all
So as for me
Set me up
And watch me fall
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
A window
Its seems to get ahead
Is to keep another down
Its hard to believe
In me
But how a climber
Will fall
I couldnt breath before
But Im feeling better now
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
A window
Its hard to believe in me
So as for me
Set me up
And watch me fall
Spreading out across the wind

So throw me out another window
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
A window
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
Spreading out across the wind
So throw me out another window
A window
