(Rock City)
right about now once again rock city and the beach girl five live life and love life

Verse 1:
Mmh I've been lying to myself
Hanging out without you
Saying I'm alright with that to all my friends
But when I'm here alone
I can't stand the silence
Can you stop the rain for one day?

Chorus:
Lay a little sunshine on me
It's been a little cloudy lately
The sound of your voice beats texting "you miss me"
A conversation beats the hell out of me wishing
Lay a little sunshine on me
Cause everybody needs somebody
So get up off your couch
Jump in your car I'm logging off
Oh Oh
Come and Get Me

(Rock City)
I could hardly hear your words you were breaking up
We're you coming back around baby we're we making up
The fight that we just had got me really really shaken
up
I'm feeling all alone so baby
Come and get me

Verse 2:
I've been trying to sort it out
Staring out the window
Looking for a spot of blue up in the sky
I don't wanna tell you what to do
I'm sending out a message hoping you
I hope you get it

I hope it's getting through

Chorus:

Lay a little sunshine on me
It's been a little cloudy lately
The sound of your voice beats texting "you miss me"
A conversation beats the hell out of me wishing
Lay a little sunshine on me
Cause everybody needs somebody
So get up off your couch
Jump in your car I'm logging off

Oh Oh
Come and Get Me

(Rock City)

Eh, oh yea, you know it's all about you my dear
I just want you to know I care
I'm on my way girl wait right there, yeah

I could hardly hear your words you were breaking up
We're you coming back around baby we're we making
up
The fight that we just had got me really really shaken
up
I'm feeling all alone so baby
Come and get me

Chorus:

Lay a little sunshine on me
It's been a little cloudy lately
The sound of your voice beats texting "you miss me"
A conversation beats the hell out of me wishing
