even though, even though it's cold outside i can't see your breath even though, even though you paint your eyes i can tell when you've been crying

even though, even though

even though, even though i never heard you sing i know what you're thinking
i'm still listening, i'm still listening

i didn't lie, i didn't lie, i didn't lie no i didn't lie to you even though, even though i tried even though, even though you cried, every night even though, even though i cried too you know i never lied to you no i never lied to you
