Whoah,
Whoah,
Whoah,
I know, it's hurting
I know, you're trying to worry
And I know, we deserve it
But sometimes, it's just the way things go, I know

I know it gets hard, when you're losing the fight
And nothing works out though you know that you've tried
Oh, you could be spending days alone with noone by your side
Wishing everything would just be alright

I try to put a smile, on that pretty face
But you just look right through me, like I would hear you say
'What am I to do to show that everything's okay?'
And I just want to tell you

I know, it's hurting
I know, you're trying to worry
And we don't deserve it
But sometimes, it's just the way things go, I know

I know that it hurts, when they say it's just life
Cos life is just a word, ain't no asking why
I'm gone, want your open heart
Will find a way to heal, I say

Oh, oh, oh
And I will put a smile, upon that pretty face
Whatever it takes girl, I will find a way
Hold onto your tears, don't let them go to waste
Cos that's the way it goes

I know, it's hurting
I know, you're trying to worry
And we don't deserve it
But sometimes, it's just the way things go, I know

Said I know you think I need you alone but I'm always by your side so don't Everything gets too late to say what was unsaid

I know,
I know it's hurting baby
And I know,
But you will find your feet
Girl you will find a way

But sometimes, it's just the way things go, I know
