I don't know where I'm headed, but I know I'm on my way,
Cannot see the finish line, but I get very vigilant,
Keep on going, something in me telling me it ain't too late.
Don't lose faith, my friend, fight until you reach the end.

Times are difficult, I know you've had your downs, I've had them, too,
Seems like there's no resolution that can take me up to you.
Smallest hearts are doing, things won't do it, raise your hand,
Let me slow you down, but look within and tell yourself.

Me, I wanna be somebody, gotta take my life somewhere,
Can't sit back and watch the world pass by without a care.
I'm gonna be somebody, mama's gonna be proud of me,
When they help it too, it all comes true, it's up to you.
Up to you, up to you, up to you,
Up to you, yeah, you know that it's true.
Up to you, up to you, up to you.
Go follow your plans, take it now it's in your hands.

Trials and tribulations, ups and down, they make you who you are,
Don't fall to all the judgments of those who's before or far,
Keep in mind the reasons why you said I'm from your crystal star,
You're half way there

I'm gonna be somebody, gotta take my life somewhere,
Can't sit back and watch the world pass by without a care.
I'm gonna be somebody, mama's gonna be proud of me,

When they help it too, it all comes true, it's up to you.
Up to you, up to you, up to you,
Up to you, yeah, you know that it's true.
Up to you, up to you, up to you.
Go follow your plans, take it now it's in your hands.

Tired of searching for what seems so out of reach
But if I give in, I'll be incomplete.
How would my tale be told if I don't give a great story?

I don't know where I'm headed, but I know I'm on my way,
Cannot see the finish line, but I get very vigilant
Keep on going, something in me telling me it ain't too late,
It ain't too late, ain't too late to let you know
Up to you, up to you, up to you,
Up to you, yeah, you know that it's true.
Up to you, up to you, up to you.
It's up to you.
