Hush and let me hold you now,
While the rain is falling hard Soon we'll find the laughter,
Even though the skies are dark.

Hear me whisper,
Somewhere peace and hope exist.
Love will win now,
We'll get through this

Fall into a dream,
and Pray that when you wake up,
This will all be over,
Close your eyes, you'll sail away,
Fly above the fears that now surround you,

Fall into a dream,
and Breathe in the air of the angels as they guard you,
Fall into a dream___

It's ok to cry for now,
There is reason sure enough.
But don't let it get to you,
You were made of stronger stuff

I can see you,
Dancing on some distant shore.
Don't let go of all you wish for___

Fall into a dream,
and Pray that when you wake up,
This will all be over,
Close your eyes, sail away,
Fly above the fears that now surround you,

Fall into a dream,
and Breathe in the air of the angels as they guard
you___,
Fall into a dream___
I don't know why,
There are wars and pain and scars.
I don't know why,

there is evil in this world of ours But that's not who we are, that's not who we are.
Don't let it be,
Who we become

Fall into a dream,
and Pray that when you wake up,
This will all be over,
Close your eyes, sail away,
and Fly_____,

Fall into a dream,
and Breathe in the air of the angels as they guard
you____,

Fall into a dream_____,

Fall into a dream,
and Pray that when you wake up,
This will all be over,
Close your eyes, sail away,
Fly above the fears that now surround you,

Fall into a dream,
you____,
