(Aceyalone):

Reflections

Think about the present and the past times

Reflect on your life and the bad times

Think about the crazy and the strange shit

Then dig within inside and try to change shit

Reflections

Reflect your mind

Reflect through time

(PSC):

My relation to these words spoken over beats leaps to and fro

All around, bound the energy in miles

Piles up towards the sky

High quantity of thoughts

Reflect the truth, sold another brother on the watch

On the clock of life, the mirror view

The clearest of reflection

Inspection of the lie that lies deep behind the stressin'

And it's pressing me like time

Rhymes is just illusions

A world in confusion

A dream of revolution

These reflections like mine in the puddle of life

Skip rocks, waves making ripple effects

Situations etched, lessons in stone tablets

For the reference to the habit

Forming addictions to the memories of past shit

I let go, it comes back

Boomerang behavior runs common in the obstacles

I wanna shake my coat tails

They follow on the missions of my failure

Bring me down, crush me

Reflections can be beautiful, but most the time they rush me

(Aceyalone):

And in an instance you see the mirror image looking at you

Looks just like you, got you eyes, and you whole disguise

Reflections, he seen his image in the lake Reflected on the grass roots which harbors all the snakes
Otherwise known as a snake pit
Remember the python on you ankle and all that fake shit?
Remember when the cake was lit, and the wind blew it out?
Before you could taste the cream, they sliced it up and threw it out
I recollect, I think back in retrospect
I reflect and connect my memories
Remember these good times and these hard times
But it's like that, and that's the way it is
And that's the way it was, but that ain't how it gotta be Reflect your mind, it works every time
Cuz if I knew then what I knew now, I'd be doin' fine
Reflect your mind, it works every time
Cuz if you knew then what you know now, you'd be doin' fine

(BFAP):

Reflect though time....
I peep when I meet people, evil or positive
We live in the middle, lost within the riddle On God's reflection I stand, within an intersection of life lost
Double crossed by man, we stand ignorant False prophet, gothic, prehistoric logic mixed our minds
Reflectin' signs of anger, reflection banger, reflection slanger
Reflection bombing hangars of 747's
Strangers wanna blow this shit to heaven
Reflection war, reflectin' poor, reflectin' Cold War
Reflectin' old multiple metal jacket tactics
You might see Murs reflectin' curse
Reflectin' hurts, you's a bitch in a male skirt
If you don't work to change your world, reflectin' hurls
In life with wisdom, beyond "blaow! blaow!"
Fake headwrapped female visions
We used to be in love with Duran Duran in '95
I got a condo in the white part of town
Change your name to Shanunu Brown, used to be Mary Tibbles
Reflect your mind before you get lost in the riddle
Reflect though time, this is time, reflect though time

(Aceyalone):

We wear our reflectors when we move though your sector

Rollin' with the protector
So, we're visible; indivisible
Face war...Mystik Journeymen
Project Blowed
Living Legends
Massmen
Fellowship
West coast
Grouch...and we out
