Verse 1 (Chris Styles):

Opens his eyes, it's time to wake up/another one of them nights dreaming 'bout the break up/
where she came to him to say to him she wana make
up/
and they speak the whole time but they never say much/lost in a gaze, lost in a maze/they were young and dumb, coming from the bottom, staying at the top/
at the top, asked her simply, you with it? you not?/
the rest is history, he know it 'cause the hands on the clock/move forward, he gotta keep going/no use in being lost in the moment, every memory disown it/
move on with the day, 'cause he wanna get paid/there's dollars to be made, you told him he got what it takes/its on his mind, he'd be lying if he said he don't remember you/
he's seen you do the coldest shit he ever knew you'd ever do/
and he know that she know, he's getting close as ever/its on you 'cause he gon' make it, and you gon' regret it/

Chorus (K-Young):

Is it really worth this struggle?/
you're causing me too much trouble/
I'm wondering if it's worth it/
should I stay do you deserve it?/
I don't wanna be apart/
Don't wanna live with a broken heart/
I can't let you drive me crazy, oh oh oh oh no no baby/

Verse 2 (Chris Styles):

He came to change the game, couldn't let it stay the same/can't nothing hold him back no more, she wouldn't call him back no more/she started calling when she heard his song is on the radio/

his mind is made up and ain't nothing that could change it though/she's leaving voice mails on his line, asks him if he's doing fine/
says she miss him and she crying, she wants to kiss him one more time/
he starts to listen and just think about the times/he started trippin' when he started digging all up in his mind/
on the dance floor, took him to the past slowly/he just started reliving the memory in trance mode/when everything was how it used to be/he's young again, dumb again, numb and then in love again/
and truthfully she don't know what she do to him/he lose it and he's back in the moment/when he snaps back out of it he's back at his home/and she's laying there in bed next to him like he's stuck in the past/
when I wake up again, damn, that's why I gotta ask/

Chorus (K-Young):

Is it really worth this struggle?/
you're causing me too much trouble/
I'm wondering if it's worth it/
should I stay do you deserve it?/
I don't wanna be apart/
Don't wanna live with a broken heart/
I can't let you drive me crazy, oh oh oh oh no no baby/

Bridge (K-Young):

I try and try to understand/why you had to do me trifling/but now I'm wiser, a little bit smarter/now I realize you never gave a damn/

Is it really worth this struggle?/ (I appreciate it)
you're causing me too much trouble/I'm wondering if it's worth it/ (That I never waited for you to change)
should I stay do you deserve it?/
I don't wanna be apart/ (I don't wanna be) Don't wanna live with a broken heart/ (But I'm gonna be moving on)

I can't let you drive me crazy, oh oh oh oh no no baby/

Is it really worth this struggle?/
you're causing me too much trouble/
I'm wondering if it's worth it/
should I stay do you deserve it?/
I don't wanna be apart/
Don't wanna live with a broken heart/
I can't let you drive me crazy, oh oh oh oh no no baby/

Outro (K-Young):

Why you wanna bring me down?/
tried your best to bring me down/wish yo ass could see me now/ (Baby Girl)
I don't give a damn 'bout what you say about me/
I'm so glad I never fell in love with you
