LOVE

Chuck Brown featuring Jill Scott

Love!

That's what we've got. That's what we need. Sing it with me.

Love!

Baby, that's how it is. That's how it's posed to be. We all need it.

Love!

Tell me what makes the world go 'round and wipes away your frown?

Love!

œL-O, L-O, L-O, L-O-V-E.

Love!

(Chuck Brown)

5 o'clock, Friday & you just got paid.

A long, hard week of workin' you like a slave.

You walk through the door, and she done fixed you a plate.

Now, THAT'S love, love, love!

Had one too many, and you can't even drive.

You call your baby up in the middle of the night.

She rose outta bed to come and give you a ride.

Now, THAT'S love, love! (Tell me what you know about it.)

(HOOK)

Love!

That's what we've got. That's what we need. Sing it with me.

Love!

Baby, that's how it is. That's how it's posed to be. We all need it.

L-O, L-O (Say it for me!) V-E.

Love!

(Jill Scott)

A dozen red roses on a random day.

â€œSoul Food Sundayâ€ with your family.

Stand in a circle, hold hands, and pray. Now,

THATâ€™S love!

(Background singers: love, love, love)

A little Al Green, little Marvin Gaye.

Earth, Wind, & Fire, Donny Hathaway.

(Background singers: Hathaway)

THE Aretha Franklin, & Stevie. They sing about love!

(Now, tell me what you know about it.)

Love ainâ€™t just romancinâ€™ somebody.

Love ainâ€™t just slow dancinâ€™ at some party.

Love stands strong. Love lasts long.

Loveâ€™s gonâ€™ have ya back.

As long as we lovinâ€™, and we got each other,

It ainâ€™t nothinâ€™ wrong with that!

We got love!

Thatâ€™s what weâ€™ve got. Thatâ€™s what we need. Sing it with me.

Love!

Baby, thatâ€™s how it is. Thatâ€™s how itâ€™s supposed to be. We all need it.

Gotcha, Baby. Witcha through thick & thin.
Gettin' through your troubles time and time, again.
From day one you knew you had a perfect blend.
Now, THAT'S love, love, love!
Now, inspiration is my number one forte.
A few converts each and every day.
Still be together when you're old and gray.
Now, THAT'S love, love! (Tell me what you know about it.)

(HOOK)
