You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted
to

Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know

Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine

And smile your whole life, I wouldn't know

18 wheels are rolling, 18 wheels are crushing me down

Running me down

Cars are crashing, cars are crashing all around me

Running me down

All my days are numbered

All my days are gray

All my skies are covered

All my ends are frayed

You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted
to

Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know

Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine

And smile your whole life, I wouldn't know

Lightning's crashin'

Thunder's rolling all around me, bringing me down

Stars are falling, fires lighting all around me

Burning me down

All my days are numbered

All my days are gray

All my skies are covered

All my ends are frayed

You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted
to

Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know

Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine

And smile your whole life, I wouldn't know

Feels like I'm falling down

Inside a fever rising

Buried my life deep in the ground

Left my existence lying, so lets go

You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted
to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine
And smile your whole life

You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted
to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
