I've found a picture of you and me
From 1989 when we
Shared the world together
Happy as teens could be

Life's a whirlwind and time's a whore
I pick up our past up of the floor
I write these lines just in case
I don't see you no more

Maybe you're married, you've got it made
Maybe you're famous, I just get payed
Maybe you show up at our show
But maybe I will never know

No, I will never know
'Cause you're somewhere where I can't go
A million miles away
Or right here next to me
I've tried so many times
To find a home that once was mine
A million miles away
Or right here next to me

Just one sign is all I want
To move on where we started from
I tried as hard as I could try
Not even sure you're still alive

What's with all that we once share
Please forgive me but I care

I scream as loud as I can scream
But you don't hear me

CHORUS

I survived our separation
But I can't wait for all time
All I need is a little information
So I can leave that behind

No, I will never know
'Cause you're somewhere where I can't go
A million miles away
Or right here next to me

No, I will never know
'Cause you're somewhere where I can't go
A million miles away
Or right here next to me
I've tried so many times
Nostalgia To find a home that once was mine
A million miles away
Or right here next to me

No, I will never know
Cause you're somewhere where I can't go
A million miles away
I've tried so many times
To find a home that once was mine
A million miles away
