"Disappear"

hearts raised but i finally lost it getting fast but time slow it's exhausting i miss you much but you're already gone, gone, gone all i wanna be here don't want nobody to see can i turn into a wind so they see what you mean but we go that too, because i still wanna have you

[chorus]

i wish i could run, i wish i could hide i wish i could get away from all that i feel inside and disappear it's impossible, turn invisible it still won't be easy, but at least then i'll be clear if i disappear

out of space is where i wanna be now without a trace just get away somehow, gotta let it go, what's done it's done, done, done

but it's understood that as soon as i go back it would do no good

[chorus]

and disappear it's impossible, turn invisible
if i disappear.
