From the moment I saw
The stars didn't seem so bright
And when I got to know you
Girl you lit up my life

For the night you lead me
To a place they can't see
Where we can just be alone
Got a look on your eyes
It's in both of our minds
I'm feeling you girl you know

Cause you're shining like a glow stick
Girl your body's so sick
Everybody knows it
And I don't know if you noticed
Girl you got me open
Trying not to show it
It's the way your skin grows
We're lost here in time
And when you touch my body
I can feel the beat of your heart
I've never felt this way before, tonight
I can't wait to see your light

Let's go somewhere
You've only fantasised
I wanna hold you in the darkness girl
I've never felt so alive

For the night you lead me
To a place they can't see
Where we can just be alone
Got a look on your eyes
It's in both of our minds
I'm feeling you girl you know

Cause you're shining like a glow stick
Girl your body's so sick
Everybody knows it
And I don't know if you noticed
Girl you got me open

Trying not to show it
It's the way your skin grows
We're lost here in time
And when you touch my body
I can feel the beat of your heart
I've never felt this way before, tonight
