I know something wanna kill me, but too slowly headaches are my only true friends almost daily

Oh my god look at my fight with a bottle with a passion what's the pain so close to my heart it signs my own destruction

Confused senses aren't working as they should be maybe I'm waiting for you so please free me

My feelings my pride everything's destroyed just the pain, just the pain living in the circle I can't get out just the pain, just the pain

Life On The Wheels Wheels of mine are my legs how people look at me it's a strange way I don't want to remember that day when I lost everything, oh bad day

Civilization makes me so sick I am bleeding, crying
I wanna see another sunrise

What do you think? I'm not an animal give me little time I'll show you my show forget my motion, hear my speech once I am stronger maybe I'll say fuck you all Civilization...
