Staying up late almost every night,
Talking to you on the phone Low in the dark in the cold and every moment gets shorter and shorter and everyone feels on their own

Let's go swim out in the moon's glow Sleep in an igloo with you Look at the stars and the moon
My pace is glacial but I'll take you to all the places you've wanted to go

I should've known
too good too be true
But for what it's worth It won't stop until It's through with you, you, you, you, ooh ooh.

Let's take a break from the cold wind today Walk up and down in the mall Trees aging red in the fall and all of the animals stare at you coldly they think you look tasty to eat.

Let's go look at the ocean again water feels cold on my hands Leave all our things on the sand and I've got a feeling that soon you'll be leaving don't know if you'll be back again.

I should've known
it's too good to be true
For what it's worth It won't stop until it's through with you, you, you, you, you, ooh ooh.

Most of the time you don't know what to do

You just walk in a straight line act like there's plenty of time you sweet talk yourself into going along with the plan that has already failed

There's not anything now left to do Many shouldn't have died You just got lucky and dumb and every life brings you closer and closer and everyone beats you in the end.
