"A Stranger In My Arms"

Visit "A Stranger In My Arms" on MotoLyrics.com

Though you try you can't conceal it, love has brought us only storms

I can see your eyes reveal it, you're a stranger in my arms

Say goodbye to our romancing, we have lost the fling that warms

Though I hold you while we're dancing, you're a stranger in my arms

Every story has an ending, this is where our story ends

Please don't hurt me by pretending, for lovers never can be friends

Through the years your love will haunt me and I'll dream about your arms

Still I know you'll never want me, you're a stranger in my arms
