I had a dream last night that I held you
And you still seemed as handsome to me
But when I awoke I found you missin'
It's just another Crazy Dream for me

Crazy Dreams linger on, as I face an empty dawn
With no end to it all, can I see
For I've surely reached the end, lost your love to a friend
Just another Crazy Dream for me.

Once you were mine and we were so happy
I never thought that the end, soon would be
But now that you're gone, and I'm so lonesome
Its' just another Crazy Dream for me.

Crazy Dreams linger on, as I face an empty dawn
With no end to it all, can I see
For I've surely reached the end, lost your love to a friend
Just another Crazy Dream for me.
