"Hungry For Love"

I'm hungry for love, like a hobo for food

Like the devil hunts for bad, like the angel hunts for good

I've been oh, so lonesome, your letters aren't enough

My arms will welcome you home, dear, I'm hungry for love

I've cried so many tears, dear, sweetheart, since you've been gone

I hope that you'll forgive me, I'll admit that I was wrong

I won't try to change you, I miss you much too much

Darling, please come home, I'm hungry for love

I've cried so many tears, dear, sweetheart, since you've been gone

I hope that you'll forgive me, I'll admit that I was wrong

I won't try to change you, I miss you much too much

Darling, please come home, I'm hungry for love
