I'm blue again, my friends all said I'd be I'm blue again because you're leaving me
This heart of mine so well remembers you Although I've lost your love to someone new
The nights are long, so long, my darling, hear me I pray that dawn will come and somehow, you'll be near me
I'm blue again, my heart is filled with tears
I'm blue again, as I think of wasted years Chorus: the nights are long, so long, my darling, hear
me
me
I'm blue again, my heart is filled with tears
I'm blue again, as I think of wasted years
