Last night I met a woman, you'll recognize her name,

Who, in our conversation, told me you were her old flame

Well, I didn't want to listen, but as she told me more,

I learned more about you than I'd ever knew before

You're keeping too many secrets from me, but, baby,
now I'm wise to you

You'll fool me like the others, then I know what you'll do

You'll find yourself a new love, then keep me a secret,
too

Well, I walked up to a counter to buy some cigarettes

And standing there beside me was a gal I'd never met

She pulled out her wallet, and much to my surprise

There she held your picture, baby, right before my eyes

You're keeping too many secrets from me, but, baby,
now I'm wise to you

You'll fool me like the others, then I know what you'll do

You'll find yourself a new love, then keep me a secret,

Too many secrets from me, but, baby, now I'm wise to you

You'll fool me like the others, then I know what you'll do

You'll find yourself a new love, then keep me a secret,

You'll find yourself a new love, then keep me a secret,
