Ladies and gentleman this time
We want to show you how to have a party
Lift your hands up in the air
And let the music take control

Put your hands in the air
You know, that love is everywhere
Can you feel it tonight
You know, that everything is alright

Put your hands in the air
Feel the magic everywhere
Move your body and soul
Let the music take control

Your music instructor instructor instructor
Feel the music

Lift your hands up in the air
And let the music take control

Put your hands in the air
You know, that love is everywhere
Can you feel it tonight
You know, that everything is alright

Put your hands in the air
Feel the magic everywhere
Move your body and soul
Let the music take control

Ladies and gentleman lift your hands up in the air
and let the music take control

Put your hands in the air
You know, that love is everywhere
Can you feel it tonight
You know, that everything is alright

Put your hands in the air
Feel the magic everywhere

Move your body and soul
Let the music take control

Now it's time to sing all together

La la la lalala...

Put your hands in the air
You know, that love is everywhere
Can you feel it tonight
You know, that everything is alright

Put your hands in the air
Feel the magic everywhere
Move your body and soul
Let the music take control

Now we come to the end
I hope you had a good time
Your music instructor
