I take my first breath then steps one and two Forget the small talk girl I'm needing you 'Cause it's the first time I've ever felt alive before in all my life You make my heart go crazy skipping beats And oh you look so good it's killing me So light the fire and fuel the flame Without you girl I'm not the same So I'll take every breath and take it slow Will you be my only one Will you be my only one Take the fall and take it hard It's safe to say you've won my heart All you are is all I need So take my hand and come with me I've gotta find a way to get to you I've gotta find a way to get to you You are the only one for me you are the only one If I can't have you then I will have no one at all No one, at all
