And she always wears yellow when she feels like herself
With a smile that's shining brighter than I ever could tell
And I know that she means business because she won't say a word to me

But lately winters taking over summers heat
I'm shaking in my sneakers, shivering in the breeze I'm nervous because I don't know if she'll ever return to me

Because when she acts like herself
I swear that she outshines everyone else
But shes been feeling alone
And nobody's fine on their own
Don't you know

And shes been wearing gray
Without a thought of change
And I've been desperately
Trying to make her see
That even when it rains
The sun is still ablaze
And right now in the dark
She is my shining star

So tell me if you're ever feeling sad or alone
And I'll do my very best to touch your heart with my own
And I hope you know that nothing but sweet nothings will appear to your ears
Because when she acts like herself
I swear that she outshines everyone else
But shes been feeling alone
And nobody's fine on their own
Don't you know

Because shes been wearing gray
Without a thought of change
And I've been desperately
Trying to make her see
That even when it rains

The sun is still ablaze
And right now in the dark
She is my shining star

Shes been wearing gray
Without a thought of change
And I've been desperately
Trying to make her see
That even when it rains
The sun is still ablaze
And right now in the dark

She always wears yellow when she feels like herself
tell
And she know that I mean business because I tell her shes all that I need
