I had a dream last night that scared me

Upon a strange and distant shore

Although I know inside, it can't be

I know that I've been there before

I'd never been there in the daytime

I might have been there in the night

Although I know it was no playtime

In fact, I've never known such fright

CHORUS:

I know that I have been there once before

Although it's in the future, I am sure

They fly by in their tight formation

Each model dwarfs the ones before

Metallic birds in their migration

I know a few will fly no more

A supersonic flying Delta

A flying Fortress at its side

Spectators flee in holy terror

As they watch the two collide

repeat CHORUS

A day-long second and they're falling

A plume of smoke, a sheet of flame

I hear the sound of voices calling (calling)

[instrumental break (simulating the sound of planes crashing)].
