Let me introduce myself to you

All you kids out there

I'm the one that frightens you

So you better take care

I'm waiting for you in the street

Waiting as your biggest fear

I call it danger, oh yeah

I'm there when your last friends disappear

I love Kids

I love Kids

I Love Kids

I tell you tales of fairy games

We are going to play

I really make you love my face

And all the other signs of decay

Smiling so harmless at home

I show my things under the bed

You lough and you hug me

But next morning your smile will be dead

I love Kids

I love Kids

I Love Kids

I love Kids

I love Kids

I Love Kids
