They say that we make a good couple
But I'm so afraid to mess up what's special
But we do what lovers do
We're not obligated that's what makes it cool
How we know we should
Ain't no way she can tell from the surface
I would never hurt her on purpose
Cause she don't deserve it
And I think she's perfect
But there's a chance things'll change if she knows this

I'm kinda single but I'm in love
It's complicated because because
I'm being patient
Can't say we're dating
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
It's complicated
So complicated
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
I'm being patient
Can't say we're dating
I can't explain it
It's complicated yeah

Our friendship's too good to damage it
If we advanced it I don't think we can handle it
That's how I feel
I could be wrong
But me speaking from experience I know
Sometimes I get confused tryna manage it
Going through the motions when I'm not emotionless
I'd rather be here for her to lean on
Than to be mad at me cause I let this go
It's complicated

I'm kinda single but I'm in love
It's complicated because because
I'm being patient
Can't say we're dating
I can't explain it

It's complicated girl
It's complicated
So complicated
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
I'm being patient
Can't say we're dating
I can't explain it
It's complicated yeah

We can't change
This friendship our bond will remain
Call it what you want but I know what it is
Com-pli-ca-ted
My best friend, my buddy
I trust her she only
Has good intentions for me

I'm kinda single but I'm in love
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
It's complicated
So complicated
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
I'm being patient
Can't say we're dating
I can't explain it
It's complicated yeah

I'm kinda single but I'm in love
Can't say we're dating
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
It's complicated
I can't explain it
It's complicated girl
I'm being patient
I can't explain it
It's complicated yeah
