There's two sides to a penny, two sides to every story
Big heads and tall tales and who gets the glory
Tell your Mama I'm crazy, tell your Daddy I'm a liar
Tell your no-good buddies I'm a black widow spider
Paint 'em all a pretty picture wrapped in a neat little lie
Go on and cry, cry

[Chorus]

Cry baby

Go on and let it all out and don't you dare ask why baby
Cause you made your bed hard and now you're gonna
lie in it

Alone tonight

While you cry, cry baby

Well I don't need you and I sure don't need this There's just so much about you I ain't gonna miss Like how good I was, how good you weren't
How I gave you my heart and it came back burnt
So let that steel guitar and the clouds in the sky
Oh let them cry, cry

[Chorus]

Cry baby

Go on and let it all out and don't you dare ask why baby
Cause you made your bed hard and now you're gonna
lie in it

Alone tonight

Cry baby

Go on and let it all out and don't you dare ask why
Cause you know why

Yea you made your bed hard and now you're gonna lie in it

Alone tonight

While you cry, cry

Cry, go on and cry, cry baby

Yeah, you can just cry baby

Cry baby
