I don't trust cause trust is blind
You can't see what's in front of you so learn from what's behind
You almost had me believing all those, sweet things you said
And I almost bought those pretty lies you put inside my pretty head
But now I

See a little difference in the way you walk
Sense some hesitation honey when we talk
And if you think your lack of devotion doesn't show
I already know you're gonna let love go

You don't have to be so cruel I know all the games you play
I know every rule
You think you're gonna keep me round, till you found another fool
But that ain't me, no, baby I see

See little difference in the way you walk
Sense some hesitation honey when we talk
And if you think your lack of devotion doesn't show
I already know you're gonna let love go

They say revenge is sweet, it's good enough to eat I'm gonna make you think you're mine, then you might find you

See a little difference in the way I walk
Sense some hesitation honey when we talk
And if you think your lack of devotion doesn't show
I already know you're gonna let me

See a little difference in the way you walk
Sense some hesitation honey when we talk
And if you think your lack of devotion doesn't show
I already know you're gonna let love go
