Let me get this out the way so there ain't no complications later on for us, no Look, I know things don't stay the same People grow and seasons change, but when it comes to love don't you feel like you ever gotta worry about my feelings changing for you all the time
'cause when I say I'm here girl, I mean it

So when the world and the odds are against us
you won't have to question

The answer is yes
When 2 or 3 years from now
you start having some doubts about if this love will last
The answer is yes
I'll still think you're beautiful
'cause I'm more attracted to what's inside of you
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes

'Cause I love you All I care about is your happiness, so the answer is yes

People just don't stick around (no) build you up and let you down, but I'm not one of those, no (girl)
I understand that you've been burned (before) Honesty is what you deserve (so much more) yea and so that's what I'm giving you, girl

So when the world and the odds are against us
you won't have to question

The answer is yes
When 2 or 3 years from now

The answer is yes
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes

Now, if you ask will I go (no)
when you need me most (no)
the answer is no I'm dedicated to what we have but will I be here the way that I promise I'll say with no fear
The answer is yes

When 2 or 3 years from now
The answer is yes, and

The answer is yes
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes
