Well I remember back when I went to school Teacher said son don't forget that golden rule
Were more important things for me to find out
My heart drops but I'm proud
My dad spent twenty years in a uniform of blue This Air Force Indian man wouldn't tell us what he knew Now that he's gone there's things I'll never know about
My heart drops but I'm proud
Ya my heart drops but I'm proud Chorus:
I can't forget how they killed
John Kennedy
I can't forget what they did at Wounded Knee
I've lived in two worlds both wanting to be free Don't try to tell me what my country means to me Star Spangled Banner and the sound of the drum Tell their own stories under the same sun
I love this country but I some times have my doubts
My heart drops but I'm proud
Ya my heart drops but I'm proud
