I was blind to think that I
Could say what I meant but afraid in the end
You'd pull out every sound
I wanted to make but never could say

I was a fool who played by the rules
Who twisted truth and spoke too soon but had a plan
Now look at where I stand
Suddenly everything starts to leave
Along the breeze, though I'm lonely I know I can
Now look at where I stand

I was you, you were me
Together we had everything
I see the lies through the guise
In your eyes, Clearly Defined

Gets harder each day but somehow someway
I will find the light
The damage is done, a battle has begun
But I don't wanna fight

I was a fool who played by the rules
Who twisted truth and spoke too soon but had a plan
Now look at where I stand
Suddenly everything starts to leave
Along the breeze, though I'm lonely I know I can
Now look at where I stand

I was you, you were me
Together we had everything
I see the lies through the guise
In your eyes, Clearly Defined

I see the truth
I'm such a fool
To think I was number one, only to be outdone

I was you, you were me
Together we had everything
I see the lies through the guise
In your eyes, Clearly Defined

I was you, you were me
Together we had everything
I see the lies through the guise
In your eyes, Clearly Defined
