There is a time when we can't seem to find
A melody 'cause the music is wry
There is a time when we all start to drive
And our road is stopped with no stopping sign

We all need someone to rely on
When things turn out wrong
We all need a simple voice to sing
All that we feel when we don't know the song
A shoulder to cry on when faith runs dry
A reason to live when hate makes us wanna die
We all need someone to keep believing
We all need just one Somebody

There is a time when you pour your soul right
Into a never ending hole
But if you call on me I promise to be
A hand to hold when you feel you're falling

We all need someone to rely on
When things turn out wrong
We all need a simple voice to sing
All that we feel when we don't know the song
A shoulder to cry on when faith runs dry
A reason to live when hate makes us wanna die
We all need someone to keep believing
We all need just one Somebody

Whenever you need me you know I'll be there
Where ever you are just call and I swear
I'll come in a hurry so baby don't worry
I'll find you because I am your Somebody

I am your Somebody

We all need someone to rely on
When things turn out wrong
We all need a simple voice to sing
All that we feel when we don't know the song
A shoulder to cry on when faith runs dry
A reason to live when hate makes us wanna die
We all need someone to keep believing

We all need just one Somebody

We all need someone to rely on
When things turn out wrong
We all need a simple voice to sing
All that we feel when we don't know the song
A shoulder to cry on when faith runs dry
A reason to live when hate makes us wanna die
We all need someone to keep believing
We all need just one Somebody

We all need just one Somebody
