"X"

You made me feel so safe
When we were so close
But then they pulled you away
I was left alone

I didn't know what to say
What to think, what to do
All I knew was one thing
That I missed you

Out of the blue the world keeps going
Suddenly I'm pushed away
An isolated "X" in a problem showing
There's no answer to display

Where do I go from here?
What is there left to say?
When will this pain disappear?
Will you return someday?

My heart is aching so much
Can't breathe without your touch
No one is listening
I need you here with me

There's a lot that I could say
But it's all in vain
It's like I'm frozen into time
I wait for you to be mine
Lost in dangers blind to many
To them there isn't any
They stung me and now I'm bleeding
Left to die with no one seeing
