See I got a weakness for you and my soul
I've got you in my matrix got me out of control
There must be a recall prepared for my heart
Cause i've had these same issues right from the start
And i've tried
Believe me i've tried to get over it
But nothing's fair in love and war
And for this breaking there's just no fix

Baby it's just not fair that every time
You're close i'm running somewhere
Cause I can't function nowhere
Back to where
I'm back back to where
I'm back to where I was in love witchu
There's nothing I can do
It's no fair I can't go back to where I was with you
With you with you

There must be a conflict with me in your mind
Cause everything I say just makes you cry
It must be an error when we go together
Cause everything's always wrong
And i've asked
Believe me i've asked everyone I know for help
But it don't work cause I can't help myself

Baby it's just not fair that every time
You're close i'm running somewhere
Cause I can't function nowhere
Back to where
I'm back back to where
I'm back to where I was in love witchu
There's nothing I can do
It's no fair I can't go back to where I was with you
With you

You and the sky must be talking
Cause everytime you're near me, girl it rains
And oh it's not fair that i'm your Superman and kryptonite in one

Baby it's just not fair that every time
You're close i'm running somewhere
Cause I can't function nowhere
Back to where
I'm back back to where
I'm back to where I was in love witchu
There's nothing I can do
It's no fair I can't go back to where I was with you
