Just a few years ago, she was too young for me to know
So I had to let her go, I cut off ties, said my goodbye
And it kinda hurt to make a young jawn cry

Now just yesterday I saw her around the way
And we sparked up a little conversation
She been diggin' on me like a goldminer
And since then she got a whole lot finer and

I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her

She's got book intelligence, street common sense
And ain't down for the bull
She can switch her mode from corporate to ghetto
Even when she gon' represent

She's that keep it real type, speaks her mind
When she does and who's she gon' like
'Cause see she's very opinionated
You can take it how you want it
Either you love it or you hate it see but

I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her

Now I'm older and I'm wiser
And I know that I want you
Now my mother and my father
Know all about you so it's cool

I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
I'm caught up with her, I'm so caught up with her
