Time and time again
You got me wondering
Why is it I aint getting through Everytime that we have an argument.
Always tryin' to win.
Just getting loud again
But you aint really mad at me
See you just start the drama
'Cause you think it makes us real
All that do is cause us problems
It only keeps me from showing you how I feel

So, do we have to fight all night (I just wanna love you)
I'll just agree
You're acting your right, alright
I just wanna love you (I just wanna be)
I just wanna be with the girl I fell in love with
I just wanna be with the girl I fell in love with I just wanna be with my girl, If you let me I wanna be with you

All the questioning
Call or text me when ever, I don't respond any time
that's good for you
All the guessing, all these questions all messing with All of that love we used to make and all the things we used to do
Tell me why we got to suffer, because you can't just chill.
You're so worried about them others,
That you never really know how I feel.

So, do we have to fight all night (I just wanna love you)
You're acting your right, alright
I just wanna love you (I just wanna be)
I just wanna be with the girl I fell in love with
I just wanna be with the girl I fell in love with
I just wanna be with my girl (If you can't be her)

Baby girl you remember when we first met (forever)
I just knew we would be that way forever babe (and I never)

But I guess I never saw it coming, when people change
I know you wanna fight for love, but being in love is hard enough

So, do we have to fight all night (I just wanna love you)
You're acting your right, alright
I just wanna love you (I just wanna be)
I just wanna be with the girl I fell in love with
I just wanna be with the girl I fell in love with
I just wanna be with my girl, (if you're playing hurt)
Then I don't wanna be with you...
