I know this girl from way back some time ago
Fine as the autumn sun with a heart of gold, yeah
One day we talked about some men in her past
'Cause I was just trying to understand

Why it's always like she always tried to hide
What it is she feels or what's on her mind
When it comes to love she gets so afraid
That someone will come and hurt her again someday

All her life she never had
Someone to show her what it means
To have or be in real love

She never had a man who was kind to her
Never told her I love you without getting hurt, no
Some people say she's bitter, some think she's scared
Some people say she thinks nobody cares

Now she walks around and protects her heart
Never looks for love lives behind a wall
Tell it to herself all men are the same
'Cause that's how it is and that is such a shame

All her life she never had
Someone to show her what it means
To have or be in real love

All I told her, "Hey don't you be, don't you
Don't you be afraid of you got no one
I, I just wanna be the one ever you need

Because all her life you never had
Someone to show her what it means
Means to have or be in real love

All her life she never had
Someone to show her what it means
To have or be in real love

All her life she never had
Someone to show her what it means

To have or be in real love
