I picture you in your red dress
Looking so perfect
And everyone's asking you
Where is your boyfriend?
And then you explain
I'm somewhere off on a plane
Or in some other city
Leave 'em wondering how he's so lucky

I will give you all I have of my time
Even though girl every second passing you're on my mind
Cause the only thing I know for sure
Is where I was the day before
But I promise that this much is true

I do it for you, I do it for us
I do it so one day we can turn this love
Into a house and a home
Where you won't ever have to be alone
And I promise you I'll make it I will
I hope you're waiting still

I picture you on a park bench (oh)
Reading your favorite (oh)
Book and they lookin asking you if you're taken
You say "yes, absolutely"
And "love met me truly"
But I know if I was by your side
They wouldn't even try

And I'll give you all I have of my time (yeah)
Even though girl every second passing you're on my mind
Cause the only thing I know for sure
Is where I was the day before
But I promise that this much is true

I do it for you, I do it for us
I do it so one day we can turn this love
Into a house and a home

Where you won't ever have to be alone
And I promise you I'll make it I will
I hope you're waiting still

I hope when I get back from where I'm going you
Are still the one that I'm coming home to Cause if you walk out that door
I'd be to blame
It's true
But

I do it for you, I do it for us
I do it so one day we can turn this love
Into a house and a home
Where you won't ever have to be alone
And I promise you I'll make it I will
I hope you're waiting still
I hope you're waiting still
I hope you're waiting still
Oh, ahhhhh
Oh, ahhhhh
Oh, ahhhhh
