I'm as mad as you are obsessively completely
Scouring the backwoods in a mind warped frenzy
Hallelujah, the night is white at the deep end

Heartbreaker, my God and Saviour
There's no such thing as home, no
Except for one place I've heard of

Brace yourself for the ride of your life
Then again hang loose
There's naught that you can do

Heartbreaker, my God and Saviour
Heartbreaker
(There's no such thing as home)
And I'm going to take you
(There's no such thing as home)

And when my faith is in tatters
And I'm squirming uneasy
That's when I know
I'm finding my way

Heartbreaker, my God and Saviour
Heartbreaker
(We're all going to die anyway)
And I'm going to take you
(We're all going to die anyway)
